

Name: _____

Year 6 Spelling

Sequence 2

Homophones	A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word but has a different spelling. their / there / they're your / you're to / two / too
------------	--

Task One

Select the correct homophone to complete each sentence.

your 	you're
--	--

Turn on _____ laptop and type in _____ username.

In maths today, _____ learning about fractions.

Don't forget to call _____ grandad when _____ free.

Task Two

Select the correct homophone to complete each sentence.

there THERE →	their THEIR 	they're THEY'RE
----------------------	--	------------------------

Can we drive _____ and back in a day?

Today, _____ receiving _____ exam results.

Have you noticed that _____ cat is sleeping over _____?

In school, _____ studying for _____ maths test.

Task Three

Select the correct homophone to complete each sentence.

to 	two 2	too
--	--------------	---

I need you _____ leave because I have _____ much work to do.

It is _____ hot _____ drink _____ cups of coffee today.

Star Challenge

Explain the difference between your and you're.